MASTER IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The Master in Business Administration is a first level master, it aims to give participants an international orientation in order to learn how business is evolving and therefore develop professional profiles able to face the competitive landscape in which companies have to operate.

The Master aims to consolidate and enrich business and management professional skills and knowledge of participants, therefore it complies with the current demands of the working world, more and more oriented to demand profiles with international knowledge to better face management dynamics, strategic and global competitiveness. According to master program participants can acquire the specific tools to understand and face the more relevant issues of today business. Business administration, strategy, management skills, financial accounting, financial reporting, corporate finance and marketing are at the very core of Master in Business Administration's curriculum. What further sets the Master in Business Administration apart is its evident emphasis on the practical side of business and management studies.

The master is suitable for candidates who aspire to complete their education through the development of appropriate skills and useful knowledge in national context but also in an international one. The Master in Business Administration allows to develop individual skills and abilities by providing a robust framework of management tools in order to make a solid and concrete professionalism in business and to emerge with skills highly desired today particularly within companies operating in international contexts.

Lessons are in mixed mode (lectures, exercises, seminars, etc.) referring to some specific areas: management, administration, financial accounting, auditing, governance and compliance, corporate finance, strategy, marketing, business law and business english. The contents of each course have always reference with a comparison with international experiences and contexts. The Business English course develops in parallel with the other teachings as a file-rouge.

The master design intends to deepen the different specialist areas in a perspective of international business integration and development, for this purpose the Master program is based on teaching methods focused on team working, action learning, business case by academics and managers from different sectors and international contexts.

Project works and internships take place in the last three months.

The weekend formula (Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings) meets business needs and professional growth of participants.
